Address: 700 San Jacinto at 8th Street, Austin, TX 78701.

Phone: (512) 476-3700

The Omni is a spacious, appealing hotel with attractive meeting rooms, a nice large restaurant and several snack bars, and a breakfast buffet. The Omni is in the middle of downtown Austin surrounded by numerous good restaurants, night spots, entertainment, shopping and a lovely "Hike and Bike" trail around Town Lake. Also, it is within about 8 blocks of the University of Texas with its museums, libraries, and bookstores. Prices are not cheap in Austin but they are more moderate than, say, Boston or New York City, and many people find Austin a nearly ideal place to meet and vacation for a few days.

The room rate for society members is $184 a night (plus tax). The deadline for reservations at this convention rate is January 30th, 2012. You will need to identify yourself as a Midwinter Meeting attendee to obtain this rate, or you can use this link to register: https://ssl.omnihotels.com/Omni?Perseus\_state=clear&lang\_code=en-us&prop=AUSCTR&group\_code=13600109619.

Kate Slaney, Organizing Committee member, has graciously consented to work with students and other attendees who would like to share a room but don't have a particular roommate in mind. She will try to arrange room sharing if you contact her: klslaney@sfu.ca. Please direct any questions about the rooms to the Omni Hotel.

Questions? Please contact Frank C. Richardson (fcr@mail.utexas.edu), Local Arrangements Chair.
